

Representing Indonesia At It's Best

The way we envision the service and quality of air travel to be has been inspired by many passengers, who's purpose is to one day be served a complete air travel experience that consists of a high satisfaction level in the multiple categories that include safety, customer service, meals, and to be entertained, to discover, to experience luxury, and to find trust and bonding relationships within our airline. We also care about the nation's that consist of Indonesia, and we've shown this through the tails of our fleet, and the premium chef-prepared food that has the Indonesian culture to allow your flight feel like you are at home in Indonesia.

As a member of oneworld, the partnerships we have between oneworld's members and us brings back the eagerness of you wanting to discover, and to experience the different cultures of different countries that you still have yet to discover.

So let us be your airline, an airline that cares and revolves around you, supporting you all the way through your journey, and making sure your AS® flight is something that you will remember for the rest of your life...

Sean O'Brien
CEO & Founder, Air Sumatra Airlines®